Limbo Raymond Cowie, 2014-11-12 If You Think Life Is Hard Try Being Dead Chartered accountant Elton Pepper thought the future looked bright With a beautiful new wife a well paid job and his favourite sausages for tea what more could a humble unassuming desk jockey ask for Of course he couldn't have been more wrong if he tried unless he was a scientologist which he isn't Due to circumstances unforeseen Elton soon finds himself in a bit of a bind nay more than that it is a horrifying blood curdling terror inducing nightmare and the only person who can help him has two dirty great horns growing out the side of his billiard ball head Cripes

One Man's Thoughts Randolph Cuthbert, 2007-08 Are you ready to open your mind and stretch your horizons Randolph T Cuthbert's stirring collection of thoughts and poems reflects one man's life and his attempts to understand it with all of its many surprises Cuthbert went through some harrowing moments in his life from being sexually molested to losing his younger brother in a car accident In an effort to deal with his emotions Cuthbert put pen to paper to produce an honest and moving compilation of his personal experiences Perhaps you will see something of yourself in Cuthbert Reading One Man's Thoughts may give you the courage to deal with your own life problems But Cuthbert ultimately hopes his words will make you think about the world around you and the role that you may play in it If I can open one mind free one thought or stimulate growth in the smallest way possible then my job has been done

Academic Literacy and the Nature of Expertise Cheryl Geisler, 2013-11-05 The first full length account integrating both the cognitive and sociological aspects of reading and writing in the academy this unique volume covers educational research on reading and writing rhetorical research on writing in the disciplines cognitive research on expertise in ill defined problems and sociological and historical research on the professions The author produced this volume as a result of a research program aimed at understanding the relationship between two concepts literacy and expertise which traditionally have been treated as quite separate phenomena A burgeoning literature on reading and writing in the academy has begun to indicate fairly consistent patterns in how students acquire literacy practices This literature shows furthermore that what students do is quite distinct from what experts do While many have used these results as a starting point for teaching students how to be expert the author has chosen instead to ask about the interrelationship between expert and novice practice seeing them both as two sides of the same project a cultural historical professionalization project aimed at establishing and preserving the professional privilege The consequences of this professionalization project are examined using the discipline of academic philosophy as the site for the author's investigations Methodologically unique these investigations combine rhetorical analysis protocol analysis and the analysis of classroom discourse The result is a complex portrait of how the participants in this humanistic discipline use their academic literacy practices to construct and reconstruct a great divide between expert and lay knowledge This monograph thus extends our current understanding of the rhetoric of the professions and examines its implications for education
