Emergency Index Vol 3:

Responding to Site Jennie Klein,Natalie Loveless,2020-12-31 This book focuses on the performance art of Marilyn Arsem an internationally acclaimed performance artist known for her innovative and experimental work Arsem's work addresses women's history and myth making capacities the potency of site and geography the idea of the audience as witnesses and the intimacy of one to one works One of the most prolific performance artists working in the United States today Arsem performs carefully choreographed durational actions that are developed site responsively and range from deceptively simple interventions to elaborately orchestrated actions This edited volume seeks to extend Arsem's legacy beyond the audiences of her live performances and enter her work into the lexicon of the art world Accompanied by 200 images this book will be of interest to scholars and students of performance studies feminist performance feminist art history and performance history It will also contribute to the history of alternative spaces and galleries which is only now being written I have had the privilege of knowing Marilyn for over 30 years Her work has given me so many epiphanies about live art time based art practice and durational performance practice How and why do you choose a single action and enact it over an extended period of time How do you respond to site and create a sacred meditational zone a reflexive space about the human condition And most importantly how do you teach future generations about the importance of living while making art as a spiritual and philosophical practice This book is yet another example of Arsem's legacy Fundamental I'd say Guillermo Gómez Peña a Watching Marilyn Arsem perform can be a slow careful vulnerable and heart stoppingly profound experience To see her is to know better the complex intermingling particularities of body space time being and action Reading this comprehensive lucidly written and deeply insightful book the first significant publication on Arsem's practice as a performance artist will enable new perspectives on a major artist's work It also sheds vivid light upon enduring themes for the critical encounter with art duration and doing materiality and nothingness truth and representation commitment and experiment togetherness and solitude experience and endurance Dominic Johnson Queen Mary University of London
