Hudson,2012-12-19 Winner of the Award for Excellence in Religion Textual Studies from the American Academy of Religion This book explores the relationship between ethics aesthetics and religion in classical Indian literature and literary theory by focusing on one of the most celebrated and enigmatic texts to emerge from the Sanskrit epic tradition the Mahabharata This text which is widely acknowledged to be one of the most important sources for the study of South Asian religious social and political thought is a foundational text of the Hindu tradition's and considered to be a major transmitter of dharma moral social and religious duty perhaps the single most important concept in the history of Indian religions However in spite of two centuries of Euro American scholarship on the epic basic questions concerning precisely how the epic is communicating its ideas about dharma and precisely what it is saying about it are still being explored Disorienting Dharma brings to bear a variety of interpretive lenses Sanskrit literary theory reader response theory and narrative ethics to examine these issues One of the first book length studies to explore the subject from the lens of Indian aesthetics it argues that such a perspective yields startling new insights into the nature of the depiction of dharma in the epic through bringing to light one of the principle narrative tensions of the epic the vexed relationship between dharma and suffering In addition it seeks to make the Mahabharata interesting and accessible to a wider audience by demonstrating how reading the Mahabharata perhaps the most harrowing story in world literature is a fascinating disorienting and ultimately transformative experience The Atlantic Monthly ,1885 History of Intellectual Development John Beattie Crozier,1901 Present Hope Andrew Benjamin,2005-08-04 An understanding of what we mean by the present is one of the key issues in literature philosophy and culture today but also one of the most neglected and misunderstood Present Hope develops a fascinating philosophical understanding of the present approaching this question via discussions of the nature of historical time the philosophy of history memory and the role of tragedy Andrew Benjamin shows how we misleadingly view the present as simply a product of chronological time ignoring the role of history and memory Accordingly discussion of what is meant by the present disappears from philosophical concern To draw attention to this absence Andrew Benjamin introduces the notion of hope and asks what this concept can tell us about the present At the heart of the outstanding work is an emphasis on the relation between hope and the Jewish tradition Through discussions of philosophical responses to the Holocaust the work of Walter Benjamin Daniel Libeskind's Jewish Museum and the poetry of Paul Celan Present Hope shows how we must look beyond the purely philosophical horizon to understand the present we live in The Drama ,1912 The Magazine of Poetry and Literary Review Charles Wells Moulton,1892 A Guide to the Study of the
