Waste and Fraud in the Aftermath of Hurricane Katrina United States. Congress. House. Committee on Homeland Security. Subcommittee on Investigations, 2007 Disaster Response Fred C. Pampel, 2008 Each volume of the Facts On File Library in a Book series is carefully designed to be a first stop research source on important current issues Written clearly and carefully so that even the most complex aspects of the topic are easily understandable the books give the reader the essential information to begin work plus the research tools needed to delve more deeply into the issues Each book includes a history of the subject biographical information on important figures in the field a complete annotated bibliography and a carefully designed index everything the researcher needs to get down to work There is No Such Thing as a Natural Disaster Chester W. Hartman, Gregory D. Squires, 2006 There is No Such Thing as a Natural Disaster is the first comprehensive critical book on the catastrophic impact of Hurricane Katrina on New Orleans The disaster will go down on record as one of the worst in American history not least because of the government's inept and cavalier response But it is also a huge story for other reasons the impact of the hurricane was uneven and race and class were deeply implicated in the unevenness Hartman and Squires assemble two dozen critical scholars and activists who present a multifaceted portrait of the social implications of the disaster The book covers the response to the disaster and the roles that race and class played its impact on housing and redevelopment the historical context of urban disasters in America and the future of economic development in the region It offers strategic guidance for key actors government agencies financial institutions neighbourhood organizations in efforts to rebuild shattered communities Tossed to the Wind Maria T. Padilla, Nancy Rosado, 2020-03-02 Framed by the stories of Hurricane Maria evacuees Tossed to the Wind is the gripping account of the wreckage despair and displacement left in the wake of one of the deadliest natural disasters on U S soil It is also a story of hope and endurance as Puerto Ricans on the island shared what little they had and the diaspora in Florida offered refuge Hurricane Maria hit Puerto Rico as a high end Category 4 and the storm surge flash flooding and countless landslides created widespread devastation One hundred percent of the island lost drinking water and electricity More than 3 million U S citizens lived for months without power making it the worst blackout in American history The slow recovery led to a mass evacuation Thousands gathered what they had left and traveled to Florida already home to 1 million Puerto Ricans In Tossed to the Wind Mar a Padilla and Nancy Rosado interview Puerto Ricans from all walks of life who now live in Orlando and Kissimmee who fight every day to pick up the pieces of their world after Hurricane Maria In their own words evacuees describe families living temporarily out of motels parents anxious about providing for their children children starting new schools and everyone worried about the families and friends they left behind Told from the midst of chaos and incomprehensible loss these are the stories filled with pain and wisdom sadness and laughter that showcase the strength and resolve of Puerto Ricans Science Under Siege United States.
