

Writing in Journals

Your team won the soccer match during recess. You finally got all the words correct on your spelling test. Your best friend is coming over after school, and your dad is taking you to the movies. Days like this are so special that you want to remember each moment.

How can you be sure to remember every detail of your awesome day? Try writing about it.

After your wonderful day is over, pull out your personal journal. Write about what happened and how it made you feel. This is one of the best ways to capture your memories. You will then be able to read about your past experiences and feelings whenever you like.
