Conflicted Territories: Representations Of Ethnic And Political Disputes In World Literature Dr. Neha Soman, Dr. B. Padmanabhan, 2022-05-24 Conflicted Territories Representations of Ethnic and Political Disputes in World Literature is an attempt to contextualise the diversity and complexity of human territories around the globe through their manifestations in literature and popular culture The unremitting presence of social variables such as indigeneity sovereignty and religion in territorial disputes obfuscates the possibility of conflict resolution due to their sensitive and complex traits This complexity is the kernel of this book in which each chapter explores the implications and dissensions of social variables in stifling global territorial crises Critical Pedagogy and the Everyday Classroom Tony Monchinski, 2008-06-28 Critical Pedagogy addresses the shortcomings of mainstream educational theory and practice and promotes the humanization of teacher and student Where Critical Pedagogy is often treated as a discourse of academics in universities this book explores the applications of Critical Pedagogy to actual classroom situations Written in a straight forward concise and lucid form by an American high school teacher drawing examples from literature film and above all the everyday classroom this book is meant to provoke thought in teachers students and education activists as we transform our classrooms into democratic sites From grading to testing from content area disciplines to curriculum planning and instruction from the social construction of knowledge to embodied cognition this book takes the theories behind Critical Pedagogy and illustrates them at work in common classroom environments World Cinema, Theology, and the Human Antonio D. Sison, 2012 Forging an open minded but reasoned dialogue between nine acclaimed titles of world cinema and a range of theological perspectives that touch on the theme of human experience World Cinema Theology and the Human offers fresh portals of insight for the interdisciplinary area of Theology and Film In Sison's approach it is the cinematic representation of vivid humanity not necessarily propositional statements about God and religion that lays down a bridge to a conversation with theology Thus the book's project is to look for the divine presence written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts depicted on screen by way of audiovisual language Seeking to redress the interdisciplinary's narrow predilection for Hollywood blockbusters the book casts its net wider to include a culturally diverse selection of case studies from festival gems such as Singapore's Be With Me and South Africa's Yesterday to widely acclaimed sleeper hits such as Britain's Slumdog Millionaire and New Zealand's Whale Rider The book will appeal to scholars of theology and religious cultural studies interested in the Theology Religion Film interface and because of its commitment to an examination of film qua film a crossover readership from film studies Forgiveness and Reconciliation Ani Kalayjian, Raymond F. Paloutzian, 2009-07-21 We all long for peace within ourselves families communities countries and throughout the world We wonder what we can do about the multitude of conflicts currently wreaking havoc across the globe and the continuous reports of violence in communities as well as within families Most of the time we contemplate solutions beyond our reach and overlook a powerful tool that is at our disposal forgiveness As a genocide survivor I know something about it As the genocide unfolded in Rwanda in 1994 I was devastated by what I believed to be the inevitable deaths of my loved ones The news that my parents and my seven siblings had indeed been killed was simply unbearable Anger and bitterness became my daily companions Likewise I continued to wonder how the Hutus and Tutsis in Rwanda could possibly reconcile after one of the most horrendous genocides of the 20th century It was not until I came to understand the notion of forgiveness that I was able to see the light at the end of the tunnel Common wisdom suggests that forgiveness comes after a perpetrator makes a genuine apology This wisdom informs us that in the aftermath of a wrongdoing the offender must acknowledge the wrong he or she has done express remorse express an apology commit to never repeating said harm and make reparations to the extent possible Only then can the victim forgive and agree to never seek revenge

Resistance and Literature in a Global Context Prakash Chandra Pradhan, 2025-02-24 The comprehensive volume delves into the discursive valences and contingencies of resistance It examines key issues and situations within the complex power dynamics of various cultures societies nations and ethnicities It explores the varying meanings of resistance in different contexts with analyses of select literary texts from various works of literature worldwide that range from Tribal writings in English and Nepalese literature to British literature and American literature It evaluates various factors including structure situation context culture agency place motives ideology and oppression within the discourse of resistance It emphasizes the cultural relevance of the study of resistance across a range of fields such as postcolonialism feminism ecocriticism gender relations and sexuality myth and folklore existentialism cultural studies rural feminism trauma theory and violence globalization ethnicity and identity child trafficking and third gender issues subalternity and marginality The book covers the genres of novels poetry autobiography and short stories It investigates the potency of these literary forms as cultural expressions of resistance It is an essential read for students researchers and teachers worldwide who are enthusiastic and curious about the meanings and contexts of resistance and its representations in literature
