Organization

By looking at how a passage or selection is organized, students can better understand the author's intent, as well as predict what information is likely to appear later in the text. Texts are often organized hierarchically, around main ideas and details, according to causes and effects, or by comparison and contrast.

Name: _____

WEEK 4 DAY 2

READ THE PASSAGE: As you read, look for facts and opinions about healthy snacks.

Smart Snacks

It's not hard to see why cheeseburgers, fries, pizza, and ice cream are popular. They're delicious! But not everything that tastes good is good for you. The next time you need to feed, consider smart snacks.

Pretty everyone loves french fries made from potatoes. Did you know that other root vegetables taste great, too? Root vegetables include beets, carrots, and sweet potatoes. They contain important vitamins and minerals, and they can all do the job a potato can do. Raw carrots are crunchy and satisfying. Cooked beets and sweet potatoes are full of flavor. Peel them and cut them into strips, just like fries. Give them a try! You'll forget all about french fries.

Discovering new foods can be fun. Plus, if you eat healthy foods, you'll be less likely to get sick. You'll also have more energy to run and play. And you will be able to think more clearly and for longer periods of time. So start snacking smartly!

ANSWER QUESTIONS: Underline two facts in the passage and draw a box around two opinions.

ANSWER QUESTIONS: Read the items. Write your response.

1. What is the author's opinion of root vegetables? How do you know?
