The Quarterly Review of Economics and Finance , 2015 Journal of Economic Literature , 2014 Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy, 2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies     Studies in History, Economics, and Public Law ,1912     Economic Report on Africa ,2015     Economic and Social Survey of Asia and the Pacific United Nations Publications,2016 The Survey 2014 will examine the regions challenges to support its economic growth and to promote inclusive and sustainable development Part I of the report will focus on the regions outlook as it contends with the ongoing global recovery and assesses the regions policy response to remaining and emerging vulnerabilities A special theme is domestic resource mobilization in Asia Pacific which will explore the challenges on strengthening tax revenues Part II of the report discusses strategic approaches to strengthen regional connectivity to achieve shared prosperity     Key Indicators of the Labour Market (KILM) International Labor Office,2016-04-14 Harvesting information from international data repositories as well as regional and national statistical sources the KILM offers data for over 200 countries The 17 chapters provide detailed information related to 36 data tables including indicators on employment occupation status sector hours etc labour underutilization and the characteristics of job seekers education wages labour productivity and working poverty Taken together these indicators provide a strong foundation from which to address key questions related to productive employment and decent work     In it Together Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,2015 This book highlights the key areas where inequalities are created and where new policies are required It examines the consequences of current consolidation policies structural labor market changes with rising non standard work and job polarization persisting gender gaps the challenge of high wealth concentration and the role for redistribution policies     Columbia University Studies in the Social Sciences ,1912     The Politics of Michigan, 1865-1878 Harriette May Dilla,1912     Rethinking Fiscal Policy for the Arab Region ,2018
