

Prompt: We know you lead a busy life, full of activities, many of which are required of you. Tell us about something you do simply for the pleasure of it.

I started playing piano because my parents forced me to. However, it has been thirteen years since I started playing, and now I do it purely for my own enjoyment. The pleasure of learning a new piece, making mistakes and learning to not repeat them the next time around, is what brings me back to the keyboard time and time again. I believe that my piano playing has taught me discipline and the reward of persistence, and these events have helped to establish my character in a way that I believe will reflect positively on my candidacy in this MIT application essay.
