How To Write A Position Paper:

Writing for Publication Mary Renck Jalongo, Olivia N. Saracho, 2016-05-24 This book offers systematic instruction and evidence based guidance to academic authors. It demystifies scholarly writing and helps build both confidence and skill in aspiring and experienced authors. The first part of the book focuses on the author's role, writing's risks and rewards, practical strategies for improving writing and ethical issues. Part Two focuses on the most common writing tasks: conference proposals, practical articles, research articles and books. Each chapter is replete with specific examples, templates to generate a first draft, and checklists or rubrics for self-evaluation. The final section of the book counsels graduate students and professors on selecting the most promising projects, generating multiple related yet distinctive publications from the same body of work, and using writing as a tool for professional development. Written by a team that represents outstanding teaching, award-winning writing and extensive editorial experience, the book leads teacher-scholar authors to replace the old publish or perish dictum with a different growth-seeking orientation: publish and flourish.

Belief, Leadership & Management Ross Fardon, 2015-03-31 This book is a re-casting for the public service of The Blue Book of Leadership and Management. See that site in this Bookstore. Between being an executive in many large and small companies, Ross had his most rewarding management experience as a CEO and later consulting in the public service. It is a high and vital calling if we get our beliefs, values and management right. In two years these ways took a good but second rank department to be rated best in the world and by example and advice soon reformed the way mines departments work throughout Australia and in many other countries. Around the world bureaucracy is out of hand in the public services and this book is worth billions in savings and more in effectiveness. Yes, it takes belief in people and the public good we provide and commitment to excellence to another level. This is how told in engaging and direct words.
