In the Company of Heroes: the Memoirs of Captain Richard M. Blackburn Company A, 1st Battalion, 121st Infantry Regiment - Ww II Richard M. Blackburn, Jerald W. Berry, 2013-05-06 Never before in the history of the world had there been such cataclysmic destruction until World War II The entire face of the earth changed as millions died and entire cities were razed to rubble World War II was the harbinger of the Holocaust and the herald of the Atomic Age For Americans it was a time of intense patriotism and sacrifice in the cause of freedom throughout the world Follow an American infantryman as he goes to war in the European Theater of Operations Walk with him among the treacherous hedgerows of Normandy and through the bitter cold of winter in Germany See through his eyes the death destruction and depavation of a world gone mad From the beaches of Normandy to the gates of Nazi Germany read of heroic deeds and ultimate sacrifice The vivid accounts of 1Lt Richard Blackburn represent history in its purest form a firsthand story of how The Greatest Generation stepped up to save the world and the freedom we cherish as Americans I was no hero but I am honored to have served in the company of heroes those who gave the ultimate sacrifice and rest forever under white crosses in the far away places they helped to liberate Richard M Blackburn US Army Ret

The Browning Automatic Rifle Robert R. Hodges Jr., 2012-04-20 For nearly fifty years the hard hitting mobile Browning Automatic Rifle or BAR served in US infantry units as a light squad automatic base of fire weapon providing quick bursts of concentrated fire Designed in World War One it didn't reach the front until September 1918. In the interwar years US forces used the BAR across the world from China to Nicaragua. It also became a favorite of notorious gangsters like Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker who prized its ability to punch through police armored cars. At the outset of World War II the US armed forces decided to adapt the BAR for a light machine gun role. The BAR was not without its flaws; it was heavy and difficult to dismantle and reassemble and it didn't cope well with sustained fire. Nevertheless the BAR saw action in every major theater of World War II and went on to be used in Korea and in the opening stages of the Vietnam War.

Featuring arresting first hand accounts, specially drawn full color artwork and close up photographs, many in color, this lively study offers a vivid portrait of this powerful long lived and innovative weapon that saw service with US and other forces across the world for much of the 20th century. US .30 Caliber M1 Rifle Manual War Department, 2018-04-26.

Mauser system and purchased a license from Germany for 200 000 The resulting weapon was a long gun with accuracy at range and a reliable internal mechanism It was fairly conventional in design except that the weapon could be considered a hybrid in that it was capable of serving both as a service gun and a carbine The M1903 was designed developed and built at the Springfield Armory and so took on the Springfield designation Initially designed to use the 30 03 cartridge the weapon was modified to accept a pointed bullet design known as the Cartridge Ball Caliber 30 Model of 1906 This bullet became known as the 30 06 or 30 06 Springfield The M1903 first saw combat during the Philippine American War and by the outbreak of WWI was the U S Army s standard infantry rifle It began to be supplanted by the semi automatic M1 Garand in 1936 but due to production shortages and other issues it was still used extensively in WWII Post war it remained in service primarily secondary uses such as guard duty as a drill rifle and for sniper duty Today the M1903 Springfield remains popular as a civilian firearm historical collector s piece a competitive shooting rifle and as a military drill rifle Produced by the U S Army in 1943 this basic field manual was standard issue and used for basic training and sniper school It contains chapters about the handling and care of the weapon ammunition marksmanship and instructor curriculum
