Leslie Halliwell

Hello Kitty Must Die:

Hello Kitty Must Die Angela S Choi, 2010-04-01 On the outside twenty eight year old Fiona Yu appears to be just another Hello Kitty an educated well mannered Asian American woman Secretly she feels torn between the traditional Chinese values of her family and the social mores of being an American girl To escape the burden of carrying her family s honor Fiona decides to take her own virginity In the process she makes a surprising discovery that reunites her with a long lost friend Sean Killroy Sean introduces her to a dark world of excitement danger cunning and cruelty pushing her to the limits of her own morality But Fiona s father throws her new life into disarray when he dupes her into an overnight trip that results in a hasty engagement to Don Koo the spoiled son of a wealthy chef Determined to thwart her parents plans to marry her off into Asian suburbia Fiona seeks her freedom at any price How far will she go to bury the Hello Kitty stereotype forever Fiona s journey of self discovery is biting and clever as she embraces her true nature and creates her own version of the American Dream eliminating without fear or remorse anyone who stands in her way Pink Globalization Christine R.

Yano, 2013-04-29 Tracing the global circulation and consumption of Hello Kitty Christine R Yano analyzes the spread of Japanese cute cool culture which she sees as combining kitsch with an ironic self referentiality Povel Geraldine Kim, 2005 Povel is a compulsive reading and writing experience a fantastic extended excursion into the mind and life in words of Geraldine Kim a young first generation Korean American woman born into the most modern of all situations the end of the 20th century in a small town in New England whence she launches herself through venues urban and cerebral academic and commercial The book length poem s stream of consciousness is trained and leashed and its form is strictly if arbitrarily regulated by another of our most modern conveniences the justified stanza which provides not only a container for the author s thinking saying and doing but also a means of signification This is a poem novel or povel by virtue of its self reliance and its bold marking of territory Povel is in the author s own words a successful merging between confessional verse poetry and the novel hence the coinage of its title Povel is also a radical entry in the annals of the several genres The author purports an omniscient skepticism about its future that it will ever be read that it can be appreciated Its reader cannot help but be amazed and heartened at the vigor this book injects into its chosen forms and the humor with which its despair is tempered
