Hells Bells David Pyle, 2014-10-26 Reborn Thirteen years have passed since James Earl Williams was murdered buried then through a powerful ritual of dark magic was resurrected to a body of Flesh and Bones During the last decade peace has reigned over the Ames family with James serving as backbone and curator over their vast financial network Married for ten years to his first love Jolie and raising a pair of precocious nine year old twins Fate seems to have granted a reprieve But there were snakes in their Garden of Eden One cold November evening following a trail of promises a desperate young girl stumbles upon a tiny book containing a rite powerful enough to unleash a desperate evil Bridget Straw has nothing left to lose and recites the tome while spinning widdershins in the dark As she utters the verse bells begin to toll in the distance These bells signal an exchange of ownership and she is overtaken by the animus spirit Freed from its prison it has places to go and people to eliminate All is at stake in this final battle between good and evil Lives will be changed and some may not survive *Early English literature, tr. by H.M.
