A Man of the Word Jill Morgan,1951    G. Campbell Morgan: the Man and His Ministry. [With Portraits.] John HARRIES (of Philadelphia.) George Campbell MORGAN,1930    The Spirit of God George Campbell Morgan,1900    The Teaching of Christ G. Campbell Morgan,2016-05-20 My purpose in this series of meditations is to consider His teaching on some of the great themes of supreme interest to men and I propose to do that in the simplest way possible Let it be understood that we start on the assumption that the New Testament view of the Person of Christ is to be accepted as true I am not proposing a study of the words of Jesus in order to lead to Christ I rather desire to lead those who have already found Christ to a study of His words In this our first meditation I propose to examine the claims which Christ made as to His own teaching I take up the writings of other men all of them valuable in greater or less degree and it is always interesting to notice a man's estimate of the value of the things he says himself and this I have observed that the greatest human teachers have always been reticent as to the ultimate authority of their teaching They have always admitted that there is room for interpretation for question for further investigation That note is entirely absent from the teaching of Christ There is no apology He never said It is natural therefore to suppose It may probably be or Consult the authorities    The True Estimate of Life and How to Live G. Morgan,2016-08-12 To me to live is Christ What did the apostle mean There are seven things which he might have meant By these words he intended to say that 1 Christ was the author of his life It was as though he had written To me to live at all is Christ 2 Christ was the sustainer of his life To me to continue to live is Christ 3 Christ was the law of his life The conditions in which I live my life are summed up in Christ 4 Christ was the product of his life To me to live is to reproduce Christ 5 Christ was the aim and influence of his life To me to live is to lead men to Christ 6 Christ was the impulse of his life To me to live is to be swept along under the compassion of the Christ 7 Christ was the finisher the crown of his life To me to live is at last to be what he is and to find the crowning of all my manhood in him Christ the end as Christ was the beginning Christ the beginning and therefore Christ the end Whether this man looked back upon the past at the present or into the future within or without behind above or beyond to the consummation wherever he turned his eyes he saw Jesus only    Notes on Matthew to 2Corinthians G. Campbell Morgan,2024-06-23 This a collection of commentaries written by G Campbell Morgan These include Matthew Mark Luke John Acts Romans 1Corinthians and 2Corinthians This is different from his Analysed Bible Through he had no formal training for the ministry G Campbell's devotion to studying of the Bible made him one of the leading Bible teachers in his day His reputation as preacher and Bible expositor grew throughout England and spread to the United States These commentaries are the culmination of his study of God's Word    A Rhetorical Analysis of the Preaching of G. Campbell Morgan Arthur Frederick Katt,1963    Winona Echoes ,1919    *G. The Crises of the Christ G. Morgan, 2016-09-28 THE authoritative literature concerning the history of the Lord Jesus Christ is contained within the New Testament He is the supreme subject of the whole library Every several book gathers its value from its testimony to His person His teaching or His work The perfection of the whole is created by its unification in Him The first four of its books chronicle His deeds and His words during the brief span of a lifetime lasting for a generation The rest of the book is occupied with the subject of His deeds and His words through all subsequent generations The book of Acts is the first chapter in that history of the Church which is the history of the deeds of Christ by the Holy Spirit through His people The epistles contain the teaching of Christ by the Spirit through chosen men for the guidance of His Church until His second advent The last book contains a prophetic vision of the final movements which shall firmly establish His reign over the whole earth The Old Testament foretells His coming and chronicles for these days the methods by which the hope of His advent was kept alive and indeed burned ever more brightly through the processes of the past The New is the history of that advent and the new message of hope under the inspiration of which men move through the confusion of conflict towards the certainty of ultimate victory The history of the New Testament is at once the story of the life of Jesus of Nazareth and the account of the accomplishment of the mission of the Christ These are phases forming the one perfect story The life of Jesus was the carrying out of the mission of the Christ The work of the Messiah was accomplished in the orderliness of the life of Jesus In this connection it is interesting to notice the opening and closing verses of the New Testament Matthew the evangelist places Jesus in His relation to the race The book of the generation of Jesus Christ the Son of David the son of Abraham The reference is not to the whole of the New Testament nor even to the whole of the Gospel but to the genealogy which immediately follows The use here of the word Christ declares the appointment of this Man to definite service It is rather a title than a name By His name Jesus He is indicated as united to the race coming through the chosen people By the title Christ He is identified as the One Who comes to fulfil the promises of the past by the accomplishment of Divine purposes The last verse of the New Testament reads The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with the saints Amen Here there is prefixed to the name Jesus the title Lord The Revised Versions both English and American have relegated the word Christ to the margin Some ancient authorities however include it The essential value of this comparison of verses is not interfered with whichever view may be taken The New Testament opens with a declaration introducing the Man Jesus and declaring His appointment to service It closes with a benediction which announces the crowning of Jesus as Lord consequent upon His accomplishment of the purpose appointed and the use of the word grace as the portion of the saints reveals the glorious issue of that work He came for a purpose The purpose is realized He was anointed of God for the doing of a work The work is accomplished and He is now the Lord through Whom the grace of God is expressed towards and becomes operative in such as are subject to Him Thus between the opening words of Matthew and the closing statement of John there lies the story of His life and the account of His mission Record of Christian Work Alexander McConnell, William Revell Moody, Arthur Percy Fitt, 1914 Includes music

Adictos Ante la Cruz Larry Skrant, 2019-01-01 Adictos Ante La Cruz adopta una postura audaz y osada al declarar que la Biblia es verdad As que si el Hijo os libertare ser is verdaderamente libres Juan 8 36 Los 9 pasos acompa ar n a los alumnos hasta la cruz donde Cristo libera a los cautivos Estos pasos no son m gicos pero una b qued a voluntaria y resuelta de alcanzar la libertad mediante ellos guiar al alumno al lugar donde la victoria sobre la adicci n est asegurada La sociedad nos dice que la pobreza la falta de educaci n y el desempleo son las ra ces que causan la adicci n Aunque las familias fuertes y la educaci n son apoyos vitales para una sociedad estable ya que ayudan a la persona a descubrir c mo actuar y qu hacer las ra ces de la adicci n se desarrollan y crecen a partir de qui n es la persona Este estudio de 9 pasos est dise ado para dragar el lodo del coraz n del adicto y desarraiglar las causas subyacentes de la adicci n liberando as al adicto de forma genuina

The Ministry of the Word G. Campbell Morgan, 2016-05-16 WITHIN the phrase the Ministry of the Word there is included the whole conception of the work of preaching as distinguished from that of serving tables It should at once be recognized that this is a distinction which must be made in practice as well as in theory but it is equally important that the distinction should be made intelligently that is with scriptural warrant rather than on the basis of prejudice or custom It must be made in the interest of the work of preaching not in that of the preachers To say that is simply to interpret at once the meaning of the Twelve when they took the action which set them apart from their brethren They were not actuated by any desire to create an order of superiority for themselves but wholly by a passion for the complete success of the particular work to which they were appointed The work of serving tables is equally sacred This is evident from the apostolic description of the character and qualifications of the men who were to be appointed to that work They were to be men of good report full of the Spirit and of wisdom The two orders of the ministry were not intended to be conceived of as higher and lower They were equally important and complementary The work of each was dependent for complete success upon that of the other Deacons might also be preachers as we soon discover in the case of Philip the Evangelist The probability is that in such a case the work of the Diaconate was given up The story of Philip would lead us to that conclusion But even if so it was not because the work of serving tables was not most sacred but because no man could perfectly fulfil the work of the service of the Word while occupied in the doing of the other All this will be even more clearly seen as we go forward with our study Our first business must be that of attempting to get these fundamental conceptions clearly before us for in proportion as we do so we shall be the better prepared for the fuller considerations and applications which we propose The two conceptions are suggested by the terms The Ministry and The Word The second of these reveals the central and supreme matter while the first indicates the method by which the work is to be accomplished We shall devote a Lecture to each The first that of the revelation of method suggested by the term The Ministry is our subject now In order to an understanding of the fundamental conception suggested by the term The Ministry we will first examine the place which the term occupies in our paragraph and then glance on to the development of the thought as it is found in one outstanding passage in the apostolic writings Taking the Revised Version we find three words which we will note in verse one ministration in verse two serve and in verse four ministry It will be granted at once that these three words represent the same idea In the Greek New Testament this is even more apparent where the words respectively are diakonia diakonein and diakonia the first and the last being identical The special word of our term then is the word diakonia translated ministration in verse one and ministry in verse four What then quite apart from any interpretation resulting from our habit and custom in the use of the word is the first and simplest idea that it suggests     God and Women JKohn D. Garr,2011-02-16 Since time immemorial women have been the most consistently and universally abused people group on Planet Earth as men in virtually every human culture have systematically unrelentingly and often violently dominated women Unfortunately women of faith have also been virtually bound in chains of submission and gagged by demands for silence since the end of the apostolic era God and Women brings serious biblical and historical scholarship to bear on the role of women in family society and church in an analysis of God s original intentions for women and for men at the moment when he created humanity Whether you are a woman or a man this book and the other volumes in this series will literally set you free challenging you to think and to act on divine truths from the Hebraic foundations of your faith You will clearly see God s original design and intent for women and you will start tearing down prison walls that have deprived half of God s children of the freedom to pursue his gifts and calling in the family in the society and especially in the community of faith     The Perfect Ideal of Life G.

Morgan,2016-05-17 THE Master you will see in this verse lays before us three things First of all He gives us the perfect ideal of human life in a short phrase and that comes at the end the things that please him Those are the things that create perfect human life living in the realm of which man realizes perfectly all the possibilities of his wondrous being the things that please him So I say in this phrase the Master reveals to us the perfect ideal of our lives Then in the second place the Master lays claim one of the most stupendous claims that He ever made that He utterly absolutely realizes that ideal He says I do always the things that please him And then thirdly we have the revelation of the secret by which He has been able to realize the ideal to make the abstract concrete to bring down the fair vision of divine purpose to the level of actual human life and experience and the secret is declared in the opening words He that sent me is with me my Father hath not left me alone
