

Autobiographical Essay

My name is Jeremy Maggi. I am a teacher at Orange Glen High School in Escondido, California. I am writing an autobiographical essay, a story about an event in my life and how it changed me. I am writing about a scary meeting I had with a rattlesnake when I was younger to show what I learned and to tell how this event was important to me.

It all happened one summer day in 1995 when I was ten years old. At that time, I was living in Valley Center, California with my parents and my brother. Our house was out in the country and there were many wild plants and animals, and I loved to go on walks with my father through the wilderness. On that day, my father, my younger brother, and I were taking a walk in the bushes outside my house. I wanted to lead, so I walked in front, my brother followed me, and my father was in the back. It was a beautiful day when we started walking; the deep blue sky was above us, the sun shined on us from over our heads, and all around you could hear the buzz of insects and the rustle of the wind on the leaves of the beautiful green bushes. I could smell the lovely smell of the summer flowers all around me.

Suddenly, and without warning, my father rushed to the front and pushed me aside. "Hey! What the heck!" I thought. But, just then, I heard a terrible buzz from where I had just been about to step. I looked and I saw a giant, red diamond-back rattlesnake in the path where I had been walking! His rattle was shaking and he was very angry. I could see his tongue flick in and out of his mouth. His narrow eyes looked at me. I felt my heart pounding in my chest. The cold wind blew on my sweating skin. Now I knew why my dad had pushed me.

We sat there for a while because we didn't want the snake to strike and attack us, and the snake stayed there, too, because he was afraid of us also. We called to our neighbor, Ken, who happened to be out, and he came with a shovel to kill the snake. Clang! With one hit he cut off the snake's head. Ken grabbed the snake by the tail and carried it back home, its blood still dripping on the ground.

How To Write A Narrative Autobiography:

The Memoir and the Memoirist Thomas Larson, 2007-05-15 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time. Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it, propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list. Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative. Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true. In The Memoir and the Memoirist, critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form. Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir, a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author's past, an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered. The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory, of finding and telling the truth, and of disclosing one's deepest self. It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr, Frank McCourt, Dave Eggers, Elizabeth Wurtzel, Mark Doty, Nuala O Faolain, Rick Bragg, and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves. Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process. For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft, The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into the many facets of this provocative and popular art form.

Understanding Narrative Inquiry Jeong-Hee Kim, 2015-03-03 Understanding Narrative Inquiry: The Crafting and Analysis of Stories as Research is a comprehensive, thought-provoking introduction to narrative inquiry in the social and human sciences that guides readers through the entire narrative inquiry process, from locating narrative inquiry in the interdisciplinary context through the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings to narrative research design, data collection, excavating stories, data analysis and interpretation, and theorizing narrative meaning. Six extracts from exemplary studies, together with questions for discussion, are provided to show how to put theory into practice. Rich in stories from author Jeong Hee Kim's own research endeavors and incorporating chapter-opening vignettes that illustrate a graduate student's research dilemma, the book not only accompanies readers through the complex process of narrative inquiry with ample examples but also helps raise their consciousness about what it means to be a qualitative researcher and a narrative inquirer in particular.
