Dear Mr. Darcy Amanda Grange,2012-08-07 In this imaginative retelling of Pride and Prejudice Amanda Grange now tells the classic story through the eyes of its compelling romantic hero Fitzwilliam Darcy in a series of revealing letters that casts a sparkling new reflection on the manners and morals of the landed gentry in 19th century England Here for the first time are the letters written by the exceedingly proud and stubborn Mr Darcy covering the life changing events that defined him from the death of his father to his control of his Derbyshire estate of Pemberley to his conflicted courtship with the lively intelligent and delightfully willful Elizabeth Bennet Try as he may he cannot deny his attraction to this woman with fine eyes a playful spirit a mind of her own and an embarrassing family that is frankly and utterly beneath him But it is Elizabeth who controls both their destinies and whose surprises will change Darcy s life yet again Darcy and Elizabeth Sharon can imagine the mask of mortification that that salutation would provoke I will keep that one for special private moments I think when you have become too much the forbidding proud Mr Darcy of old and I simply wish to laugh at you And so My dearest Darcy it is not only because it strikes me as particularly euphonious but because it is true in whole and in parts I love your sister my new sister dearly but I can say without any compunction that you are indeed the dearest Darcy to me dearer even than myself You are Darcy first and foremost I can scarcely think of you by any other name even though it is now my own It is the name by which I first knew you by which I truly came to know you and by which I have come to love you with all of my foolish conceited heart Too you are mine Pride is a sin as we both know to our misfortune but I think that this is one of the things of which I am proudest that you virtuous accomplished intelligent upright occasionally to a fault belong to me And that I vain silly homely and venal belong to you soul mind and body Of your possession of my soul you must trust Of my mind you have this evidence that you have been gone from our bed and from our home for but four hours and I have had scarcely a thought but of you Here good my lord is the point at which I must ask you to remember that I warned you to read this in a private place If you failed to heed my warning on your head be it As for my body sir you have ample evidence of your possession of that it has been yours to do with as it has pleased you for these past weeks and oh Darcy I hope it has pleased you to take ownership so completely It has pleased me and pleased me again to the point where now having felt you within me and against me only this morning my body weeps at your absence desiring only to be taken and to take again
