Charity Law Juliet Chevalier-Watts, 2017-09-14 This work provides an analytical and comparative analysis of the development of charity law as well as providing a critical commentary on a number of contemporary changes within the charity law field across a range of common law jurisdictions The book follows earlier studies which cover a similar and traditional jurisdictional spread but which are now dated It further considers in detail charity law issues within Hong Kong and Singapore about which there has been historically more limited charity law discussion The area is growing in terms of practical legal and academic interest

Streaming and Copyright Law Lasantha Ariyaratna, 2022-09-05 This book examines the challenges posed to Australian copyright law by streaming from the end user perspective It compares the Australian position with the European Union and United States to draw lessons from them regarding how they have dealt with streaming and copyright By critically examining the technological functionality of streaming and the failure of copyright enforcement against the masses it argues for strengthening end user rights The rising popularity of streaming has resulted in a revolutionary change to how digital content such as sound recordings cinematographic films and radio and television broadcasts is used on the internet Superseding the conventional method of downloading using streaming to access digital content has challenged copyright law because it is not clear whether end user acts of streaming constitute copyright infringement These prevailing grey areas between copyright and streaming often make end users feel doubtful about accessing digital content through streaming It is uncertain whether exercising the right of reproduction is appropriately suited for streaming given the ambiguities of embodiment and scope of substantial part Conversely the fair dealing defence in Australia cannot be used aptly to defend end users acts of streaming digital content because end users who use streaming to access digital content can rarely rely on the defence of fair dealing for the purposes of criticism or review news reporting parody or satire or research or study When considering a temporary copy exception end users are at risk of being held liable for infringement when using streaming to access a website that contains infringing digital content even if they lack any knowledge about the content's infringing nature Moreover the grey areas in circumventing geo blocking have made end users hesitant to access websites through streaming because it is not clear whether technological protection measures apply to geo blocking End users have a severe lack of knowledge about whether they can use circumvention methods such as virtual private networks to access streaming websites without being held liable for copyright infringement Despite the intricacies between copyright and access to digital content the recently implemented website blocking laws have emboldened copyright owners while suppressing end users access to digital content This is because the principles of proportionality and public interest have been given less attention when determining website blocking injunctions The Ashgate Research Companion to Migration Law, Theory and Policy Professor Satvinder S Juss,2013-04-28 This companion takes stock of the current state of literature on migration law theory and policy and sketches out the contours of its future long term development in what is now a vastly expanded research agenda thereby providing a definitive and dependable state of the art review of current research in each of the chosen areas Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,2010 House of Commons - European Scrutiny Committee: Reforming the European Scrutiny Process in the House of Commons: Volume II - HC 109-II Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee,2013-11-28 The depth and pace of EU integration has demonstrated the need for effective democratic parliamentary scrutiny and accountability of Government at Westminster This is the first major inquiry into the European scrutiny system in the House of Commons for eight years There is more that the Committee could do to look at the impact of new proposals There should be a new requirement to appoint Reporters to take the lead within Committees on EU issues as well as a more coordinated approach to the Commission Work Programme Whilst the system need not be scrapped as some have said it must be enhanced Many problems arise from the fact that new Members are appointed for each document The Committee argues forcefully for a return to the permanent membership system new powers and a change of name to reflect the Committees core purpose EU Document Debate Committees The Committee also examined how EU business is taken on the floor of the House and the procedures which apply to it They set out a series of recommendations about the way debates are scheduled and conducted and put the case for a new session of EU Questions They also review working practices and the visibility of the House s scrutiny of the EU in the media It concluded that now is the time to propose the introduction of a form of national veto over EU legislative proposals and then to explore the mechanics of disapplication of parts of existing EU obligations notwithstanding the European Communities Act 1972 Cryptology Noel Guivani Ramiscal,2015 Journal of the American Judicature Society ,1927 Michigan State Journal of International Law ,2013 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events
