Throughout years I've been exposed to various cultures due to studying in different countries. I've studied in Korea which is my home country then I attended middle school in India and moved to States for high school and college. Also, I had an opportunity to serve in the Korean Army for 2 years in between my freshman and sophomore year at East Carolina University (ECU). All of them knew how to motivate others while keeping up a healthy atmosphere, had good social awareness, vision. They also knew how to overcome challenges with the help of other and were never arrogant despite of their success.

After my freshman year at ECU, I decided to join the army for 2 years. While serving in the army, I was promoted as a squad captain and was put in charge of thirty soldiers. Luckily I knew few month before the promotion happened so I was able to prepare myself before the promotion. One of the things I did to prepare myself was examining the leaders in each squad. All of them had pros and cons and I tried to adapt the good characteristics and avoided the bad ones. While I was in charge, I tried to be fair to everyone and be considerate to my guys. I knew
