

The background of the image is a vibrant space scene. In the upper left, a large, pale, cratered planet (resembling Saturn) is partially visible. To its right, a smaller planet with a prominent ring system (resembling Uranus) is seen. The central area is filled with a bright, orange and yellow nebula or star formation. Numerous dark, rocky asteroids of various sizes are scattered throughout the scene. At the bottom, the top of a space station or shuttle is visible, featuring a circular hatch and several illuminated control panels with red, green, and blue lights.
