Fatherhood Formula And Other F Words:

Communion and Otherness John D. Zizioulas, 2010-07-15 Communion and otherness how can these be reconciled In this wide ranging study the distinguished Orthodox theologian Metropolitan John Zizioulas of Pergamon seeks to answer that question In his celebrated book Being as Communion 1985 he emphasised the importance of communion for life and for unity In this important companion volume he now explores the complementary fact that communion is the basis for true otherness and identity With a constant awareness of the deepest existential questions of today Metropolitan John probes the Christian tradition and highlights the existential concerns that already underlay the writings of the Greek fathers and the definitions of the early ecumenical councils In a vigorous and challenging way he defends the freedom to be other as an intrinsic characteristic of personhood fulfilled only in communion After a major opening chapter on the ontology of otherness written specially for this volume the theme is systematically developed with reference to the Trinity Christology anthropology and ecclesiology Another new chapter defends the idea that the Father is cause of the Trinity as taught by the Cappadocian fathers and replies to criticisms of this view The final chapter responds to the customary separation of ecclesiology from mysticism and strongly favours a mystical understanding of the body of Christ as a whole Other papers previously published but some not easily obtainable are all revised for their inclusion here This is a further contribution to dialogue on some of the most vital issues for theology and the Church from one of the leading figures in modern ecumenism
