Felicia's Journey Stephanie McBride,Irish Film Institute,2006 Felicia's Journey explores the 1999 film adaptation by Director Atom Egoyan of William Trevor's novel of 1994 McBride addresses Hitchcockian influences the sense of place in the visual discourse and the characterization of the serial killer Hilditch as constructed initially by Trevor and interpreted by Egoyan Eschewing a crude fidelity model of adaptation the study explores Egoyan's screen version as a commentary on or significant reworking of the original book In particular Egoyan's extension of the mother figure through his creation of Gala opens questions about memory representation and cinema's capacity as a reflexive medium which is a central feature of his film art

Death in Summer William Trevor,1999-10-01 William Trevor's Last Stories is forthcoming from Viking A New York Times Bestseller and Notable Book From the winner of the 1999 David Cohen British Literature Prize comes an unforgettably chilling novel written with the compassion and artistry that define Trevor's fiction There were three deaths that summer The first was Letitia's sudden and quite unexpected leaving her husband Thaddeus haunted by the details of her last afternoon The next death came some weeks later after Thaddeus's mother in law helped him to interview for a nanny to bring up their baby None of the applicants were suitable least of all the last one with her sharp features her shabby clothes that reeked of cigarettes her badly typed references so Letitia's mother moved herself in But then just as the household was beginning to settle down the last of the nannies surprisingly returned her unwelcome arrival heralding the third of the summer tragedies William Trevor is an extraordinarily mellifluous writer seemingly incapable of composing an ungraceful sentence His skill is very real and equals his great compassion With Death in Summer these two qualities combine in a beautiful and resonant way The New York Time Book Review Possibly the most perfect of Trevor's novels Astonishing Los Angeles Times Book Review Beautifully paced and mesmerizing Offering us a compelling mystery on many levels through finely drawn perfect glimpses of touchingly imperfect lives The Washington Post Book World Nominated for a Los Angeles

Times Book Prize    The Story of Lucy Gault William Trevor,2003-08-26 The Story of Lucy Gault once read will never be forgotten The Washington Post Book World Trevor was our twentieth century Chekov Wall Street Journal The stunning novel from highly acclaimed author William Trevor is a brilliant subtle and moving story of love guilt and forgiveness The Gault family leads a life of privilege in early 1920s Ireland but the threat of violence leads the parents of nine year old Lucy to decide to leave for England her mother s home Lucy cannot bear the thought of leaving Lahardane their country house with its beautiful land and nearby beach and a dog she has befriended On the day before they are to leave Lucy runs away hoping to convince her parents to stay Instead she sets off a series of tragic misunderstandings that affect all of Lahardane s inhabitants for the rest of their lives    A Bit on the Side William Trevor,2005-09-13 William Trevor s stunning new collection of stories displays this renowned craftsman at the peak of his powers A middle aged couple meet in a theatre bar for a squalid blind date a disappointed priest fears an innocent young girl may run away from home two self certain sisters visit a newly widowed local woman From these slender moments Trevor creates whole lives conjuring up characters marked by bitterness and loss William Trevor s graceful prose is a wonder in itself and as convincing when inhabiting the mind of a school lunchmaid an adulterous Irish country librarian or a murderer on the London streets And as is always the case with William Trevor venom and tragedy are never far from the still surface of the stories These stories many of which first appeared in The New Yorker are small masterpieces of observation from one of the most highly acclaimed and beloved writers of the century    Felicia's Journey Stephanie McBride,Irish Film Institute,2006 Felicia s Journey explores the 1999 film adaptation by Director Atom Egoyan of William Trevor s novel of 1994 McBride addresses Hitchcockian influences the sense of place in the visual discourse and the characterization of the serial killer Hilditch as constructed initially by Trevor and interpreted by Egoyan Eschewing a crude fidelity model of adaptation the study explores Egoyan s screen version as a commentary on or significant reworking of the original book In particular Egoyan s extension of the mother figure through his creation of Gala opens questions about memory representation and cinema s capacity as a reflexive medium which is a central feature of his film art    In the House of Night Christopher Navratil,1997 For evocative bedtime reading the San Francisco based author presents the dreamtime escapades of such diverse historical and contemporary figures as Allen Ginsberg Virginia Woolf Dostoevsky Ingmar Bergman John Updike and dream master Freud grouped by theme asleep and awake desire and love sorrow and remorse identity and discover anxiety and neurosis death and escape and inspiration and gratification No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR    Ararat Associations Dick Tahta,2006 When he first saw Atom Egoyan s film Ararat Dick Tahta was intrigued by the many associations it summoned up for him The film is crammed with brief conversations and scenes that linked with memories of his childhood in a small Armenian community in Manchester in the nineteen thirties and with the various aspects of Armenian culture that are as in any immigrant community carefully nourished by Armenians all over the world Above all the film delicately raises the issue of what later generations have made of the terrible experiences of their ancestors in the last years of the Ottoman Empire As well as giving a penetrating insight into Egoyan s film Tahta offers some fascinating interpretations of Armenian history religion language and literature His digressions into youthful memories family history and his own travels through Eastern Anatolia give this book a warm and personal feel Dick Tahta was born in Manchester of parents who had survived the events of 1915 They were keen for their children to have an English education but made sure that they spoke Armenian at home As a second generation immigrant he was interested like some of the characters in the film in the nature of identity and its definition by criteria other than ethnicity He raised four children with his late wife Hilary he was a mathematics teacher and then a university lecturer Now he is retired and is a widower and grandfather
