The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Romance Fiction Jayashree Kamblé, Eric Murphy, Selinger, Hsu-Ming Teo, 2020-08-11 Popular romance fiction constitutes the largest segment of the global book market. Bringing together an international group of scholars, The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Romance Fiction offers a ground breaking exploration of this global genre and its remarkable readership. In recognition of the diversity of the form, the Companion provides a history of the genre, an overview of disciplinary approaches to studying romance fiction and critical analyses of important subgenres, themes and topics. It also highlights new and understudied avenues of inquiry for future research in this vibrant and still emerging field. The first systematic comprehensive resource on romance fiction, this Companion will be invaluable to students and scholars and accessible to romance readers.

Walton Beacham, Suzanne Niemeyer, 1987 Publishing and critical history of best selling world fiction writers critical evaluations of selected titles. Readings in African Popular Fiction Stephanie Newell, 2002 a useful introduction to an important field of African creative writing that has been invisible for the most part in North America and Europe. Eileen Julien, Readings in African Popular Fiction explores the social, political and economic contexts of popular narratives by bringing together new and classic essays by important scholars in African literature and eight primary texts. Excerpts from popular magazines, cartoons, novellas and moral and instructional pamphlets present African popular fiction from all areas of the continent. Selections include essays on Hausa creative writing, the influence of Indian film in Nigeria, Onitsha market literature writing and popular culture in Cameroon, Kenyan romances, Swahili literature, art and cartoons, works by South African writers of the 1950s and popular crime thrillers in Malawi. Stephanie Newell's introduction engages themes and trends in popular fiction in contemporary Africa.
