Sports Illustrated Great Football Writing Editors of Sports Illustrated, 2012-10-30 For more than 50 years Sports Illustrated has been the gold standard of sports writing and during that time football once a popular college pastime but only a rag tag professional game has moved to center stage taking its unquestioned place as America's most popular sport. This book brings together dozens of football classics from the pages of SI featuring the work of such esteemed writers as John O'Hara and Jack Kerouac, Dan Jenkins and George Plimpton, Don DeLillo and John Updike, and John Ed Bradley. And of course the collection includes many of the longtime favorites of SI readers: Frank Deford and Rick Reilly, Steve Rushin and Gary Smith, Peter King and Rick Telander, and the inimitable Dr. Z. Paul Zimmerman. Covering more than half a century of the game at every level from high school to the Super Bowl, this volume will be indispensable reading for serious football fans.

Athletic Journal, 1967 Vols 9-10 include proceedings of the 8th and 11th annual meeting of the American Football Coaches Association and of the 3d and 6th annual meeting of the National Association of the Basketball Coaches of the United States.

Rising Tide Randy Roberts, Ed Krzemienski, 2013-08-20 The extraordinary story of how Coach Paul Bear Bryant and Joe Namath, his star quarterback at the University of Alabama, led the Crimson Tide to victory and transformed football into a truly national pastime. During the bloodiest years of the civil rights movement, Bear Bryant and Joe Namath, two of the most iconic and controversial figures in American sports, changed the game of college football forever. Brilliantly and urgently drawn, this is the gripping account of how these two very different men, Bryant, a legendary coach in the South who was facing a pair of ethics scandals that threatened his career, and Namath, a cocky Northerner from a steel mill town in Pennsylvania, led the Crimson Tide to a national championship. To Bryant and Namath, the game was everything. But no one could ignore the changes sweeping the nation between 1961 and 1965: from the Freedom Rides to the integration of colleges across the South and the assassination of President Kennedy. Against this explosive backdrop, Bryant and Namath changed the meaning of football. Their final contest together, the 1965 Orange Bowl, was the first football game broadcast nationally in color during prime time, signaling a new era for the sport and the nation. Award-winning biographer Randy Roberts and sports historian Ed Krzemienski showcase the moment when two thoroughly American traditions—football and Dixie—collided. A compelling story of race and politics, honor and the will to win, Rising Tide captures a singular time in America. More than a history of college football, this is the story of the struggle and triumph of a nation in transition and the legacy of two of the greatest heroes the sport has ever seen.
