How to Become Like Christ Marcus Dods, 2014-03-08 How to Become like Christ Christian Life By Marcus Dods I suppose there is almost no one who would deny if it were put to him that the greatest possible attainment a man can make in this world is likeness to The Lord Jesus Christ Certainly no one would deny that there is nothing but character that we can carry out of life with us and that our prospect of good in any future life will certainly vary with the resemblance of our character to that of Jesus Christ which is to rule the whole future We all admit that but almost every one of us offers to himself some apology for not being like Christ and has scarcely any clear reality of aim of becoming like Him Why we say to ourselves or we say in our practice it is really impossible in a world such as ours is to become perfectly holy One or two men in a century may become great saints given a certain natural disposition and given exceptionally favouring circumstances men may become saintly but surely the ordinary run of men men such as we know ourselves to be with secular disposition and with many strong vigorous passions surely we can really not be expected to become like Christ or if it is expected of us we know that it is impossible On the contrary Paul says We all we all Every Christian has that for a destiny to be changed into the image of his Lord And he not only says so but in this one verse he reveals to us the mode of becoming like Christ and a mode as we shall find so simple and so infallible in its working that a man cannot understand it without renewing his hope that even he may one day become like Christ In order to understand this simplest mode of sanctification we must look back at the incident that we read in the Book of Exodus xxxiv 29 35 Paul had been reading how when Moses came down from the mount where he had been speaking with God his face shone so as to dazzle and alarm those who were near him Christian Life Spiritual Growth Christian Education Christian Sermons Bible Study

Becoming Like Jesus Christopher J. H. Wright, 2016-05-14 In the last sermon he ever preached John Stott echoed the Apostle Paul when he said that God s greatest desire and plan for us is to become like his Son Jesus Christ BUT HOW Stott prayed daily that God would bear the fruit of the Holy Spirit in his own life a prayer clearly answered and evident in his Christlikeness Chris Wright a close friend of John Stott reflects on all nine qualities that the Apostle Paul includes in the fruit of the Spirit in Galatians He shows how they are rooted in the character of God first revealed in the Old Testament and modelled and taught by Jesus With applications to encourage biblical growth with depth and questions at the end of each chapter this is an ideal resource for preachers study groups and personal reflection Many people rightly stress the importance of the gifts power and ministries of the Holy Spirit but easily neglect Paul's command to live and walk by the Spirit and cultivate the fruit that only he can bear in our lives Paying close attention to the beautiful and robust qualities that Paul includes in the fruit and seeking daily to cultivate them with God's help is surely one way we can become more and more like Jesus How to Become Like Christ Marcus Dods,2018-09-26 How to Become Like Christ 4 The Transfiguration 35 Indiscreet Importunity 60 Shame on Account of God's Displeasure 73 Naaman Cured 87 The Lame Man at the Temple Gate 101 Excerpt I suppose there is almost no one who would deny if it were put to him that the greatest possible attainment a man can make in this world is likeness to The Lord Jesus Christ Certainly no one would deny that there is nothing but character that we can carry out of life with us and that our prospect of good in any future life will certainly vary with the resemblance of our character to that of Jesus Christ which is to rule the whole future We all admit that but almost every one of us offers to himself some apology for not being like Christ and has scarcely any clear reality of aim of becoming like Him Why we say to ourselves or we say in our practice it is really impossible in a world such as ours is to become perfectly holy One or two men in a century may become great saints given a certain natural disposition and given exceptionally favouring circumstances men may become saintly but surely the ordinary run of men men such as we know ourselves to be with secular disposition and with many strong vigorous passions surely we can really not be expected to become like Christ or if it is expected of us we know that it is impossible On the contrary Paul says We all we all Every Christian has that for a destiny to be changed into the image of his Lord And he not only says so but in this one verse he reveals to us the mode of becoming like Christ and a mode as we shall find so simple and so infallible in its working that a man cannot understand it without renewing his hope that even he may one day become like Christ So, You Want To Be Like Christ? Charles R. Swindoll,2007-03-04 Practice makes perfect And readers of So You Want To Be Like Christ learn how to cultivate spiritual discipline through projects activities and exercises that lead to the essence of what it means to be a Christian Inspired by the acts of sacrifice and discipline exemplified by the D Day generation as well as the current generation of young American soldiers many Christians today are looking for an obedient disciplined approach to faith In this user friendly study Chuck Swindoll guides readers toward a greater understanding of eight spiritual disciplines of the Christian faith prayer humility self control sacrifice submission solitude silence and hope Each chapter defines and discusses the concept then provides interactive assignments and suggestions for further study as well as content summaries and outlines that aid in retention Activities can be revisited again and again for a new outlook or just for a periodic refresher Perfect for individual or group or family study So You Want To Be Like Christ is just right for anyone desiring to delve deeper into the fundamental elements of Christian life and essential for all who hunger for authentic faith experiences It is destined to be a classic text on the practice of Christianity How to Become Like Christ (a Timeless Classic) Marcus Dods,2016-08-19 I suppose there is almost no one who would deny if it were put to him that the greatest possible attainment a man can make in this world is likeness to

The Lord Jesus Christ Certainly no one would deny that there is nothing but character that we can carry out of life with us and that our prospect of good in any future life will certainly vary with the resemblance of our character to that of Jesus Christ which is to rule the whole future We all admit that but almost every one of us offers to himself some apology for not being like Christ and has scarcely any clear reality of aim of becoming like Him Why we say to ourselves or we say in our practice it is really impossible in a world such as ours is to become perfectly holy One or two men in a century may become great saints given a certain natural disposition and given exceptionally favouring circumstances men may become saintly but surely the ordinary run of men men such as we know ourselves to be with secular disposition and with many strong vigorous passions surely we can really not be expected to become like Christ or if it is expected of us we know that it is impossible

Marcus Dods,2015-04-07 One word in conclusion I suppose there is no one who at one time or other has not earnestly desired to be of some use in the world Perhaps there are few who have not even definitely desired to be of some use in the kingdom of Christ As soon as we recognise the uniqueness of Christ s purpose and the uniqueness of His power in the world as soon as we recognise that all good influence and all superlatively dominant influence proceeds from Him and that really the hope of our race lies in Jesus Christ as soon as we realise that as soon as we see that with our reason and not as a thing that we have been taught to believe as soon as we lay hold on it for ourselves we cannot but wish to do something to forward His purposes in the world But as soon as we form the wish we say What can we do We have not been born with great gifts we have not been born in superior

How to be a Christian Without Being Religious Fritz Ridenour,2002-06-06 Since the days of the Early Church Christians have struggled to find a way to be good to please God by their own efforts They end up carrying a burden God never intended them to bear And what s more their brand of Christianity ends up looking like any other religion of the world bound by joyless rules and rituals Fritz Ridenour s study of the book of Romans provides an antidote to the pharisaical spirit and shows that Christianity is not a religion but a relationship It is not man reaching up but God reaching down Every Christian can enjoy his or her birthright when they realize who they are in Christ The result is a life full of hope joy power and potential
