The Metamorphosis of Magic from Late Antiquity to the Early Modern Period Jan N. Bremmer, Jan R. Veenstra, 2002 Deities demons and angels became important protagonists in the magic of the Late Antique world and were also the main reasons for the condemnation of magic in the Christian era Supplicatory incantations rituals of coercion enticing suffumigations magical prayers and mystical songs drew spiritual powers to the humain domain Next to the magician's desire to regulate fate and fortune it was the communion with the spirit world that gave magic the potential to purify and even deify its practitioners The sense of elation and the awareness of a metaphysical order caused magic to merge with philosophy notably Neoplatonism The heritage of Late Antique theurgy would be passed on to the Arab world and together with classical science and learning would take root again in the Latin West in the High Middle Ages The metamorphosis of magic laid out in this book is the transformation of ritual into occult philosophy against the background of cultural changes in Judaism Graeco Roman religion and Christianity This volume the first in the new series Groningen Studies in Cultural Change offers the papers presented at the workshop The Metamorphosis of Magic from Late Antiquity to the Early Modern Period held from 22 to 24 June 2000 and organised by Jan N Bremmer and Jan R Veenstra The papers have been written by scholars from such varying disciplines as classics theology philosophy cultural history and law Their contributions shed new light upon several old obscurities they show magic to be a significant area of culture and they advance the case for viewing transformations in the lore and practice of magic as a barometer with which to measure cultural change

The Koran: ...

Translated Into English ... By G. Sale. Fifth Edition, with a Memoir of the Translator by R. A. Davenport , and with Various Readings and Illustrative Notes from Savary's Version of the Koran ,1876 Bearing Yhwh's Name at Sinai

Carmen Joy Imes,2023-06-21 The Name Command NC is usually interpreted as a prohibition against speaking Yhwh's name in a particular context false oaths wrongful pronunciation irreverent worship magical practices cursing false teaching and the like However the NC lacks the contextual specification needed to support the command as speech related Taking seriously the narrative context at Sinai and the closest lexical parallels a different picture emerges one animated by concrete rituals and their associated metaphorical concepts The unique phrase ns shm is one of several expressions arising from the conceptual metaphor election as branding that finds analogies in high priest regalia as well as in various ways of claiming ownership in the Ancient Near East such as inscribed monuments the use of seals and the branding of slaves The NC presupposes that Yhwh has claimed Israel by placing Yhwh's own name on her In this light the first two commands of the Decalogue reinforce the two sides of the covenant declaration I will be your God you will be my people The first expresses the demand for exclusive worship and the second calls for proper representation As a consequence the NC invites a richer exploration of what it means to be a people in covenant with Yhwh a people bearing his name among the nations It also points to what is at stake when Israel carries that name in vain The image of bearing Yhwh's name offers a rich source for theological and ethical reflection that cannot be conveyed nonmetaphorically without distortion or loss of meaning Radio Times ,1972
