(Re)Considering What We Know Linda Adler-Kassner, Elizabeth Wardle, 2020-01-10 Naming What We Know Threshold Concepts of Writing Studies published in 2015 contributed to a discussion about the relevance of identifying key concepts and ideas of writing studies Re Considering What We Know continues that conversation while simultaneously raising questions about the ideas around threshold concepts Contributions introduce new concepts investigate threshold concepts as a framework and explore their use within and beyond writing Part 1 raises questions about the ideologies of consensus that are associated with naming threshold concepts of a discipline Contributions challenge the idea of consensus and seek to expand both the threshold concepts framework and the concepts themselves Part 2 focuses on threshold concepts in action and practice demonstrating the innovative ways threshold concepts and a threshold concepts framework have been used in writing courses and programs Part 3 shows how a threshold concepts framework can help us engage in conversations beyond writing studies Re Considering What We Know raises new questions and offers new ideas that can help to advance the discussion and use of threshold concepts in the field of writing studies It will be of great interest to scholars and graduate students in writing studies especially those who have previously engaged with Naming What We Know Contributors
