Read the story, and then answer the questions that follow.

The scorching sun felt like a million laser beams on Ashley's back as she rustled through the dune grass looking for leftover cups, plastic bags, and other assorted remnants of the weekend's tourists. Ugh! she thought, as she pulled a greasy old burger wrapper out of the sand. How on earth did I ever let Tasha convince me to join her volunteer group to clean up the beach? This has got to be the least entertaining way to spend my Saturday morning. She glanced at Tasha, who was fishing a pair of dirty shoelaces from the tall grass.

"Is beach cleanup always this tedious? There's so much trash. And, for the record, I can't tolerate this heat and humidity," Ashley griped.

Tasha shrugged her shoulders as she threw the brownish shoelaces into the garbage bag. "Sure, it's not the most exciting thing we've ever done together, and the weather is not exactly pleasant," Tasha admitted, "but if we don't do it, who will?"

There were some shrubs with needle-like leaves. Ashley gritted her teeth as she carefully picked a napkin out of the thorny branches. But then, as she reached her hand under the brambles a second time, she felt something squishy and hairy brush against her hand. Ick! What kind of gross trash could be down there? She let out an exasperated sigh as she crouched down to investigate. There, under the bush, was a fluffy, cream-colored dog. The dog bounded forward and licked her face.

"Hey, Tasha," she yelled, "You need to come see this!"

Tasha's eyes widened as she took in the dog, covered in burrs, licking her friend's face. "He's so friendly! Someone must be missing him. Maybe he lives in one of those apartments?" she suggested, gesturing toward the building near the parking lot.

"He's so friendly!"

The girls left their trash bags and gloves by the dunes and set off toward the building, with the dog playfully trotting alongside. As they walked, an older couple passed by.

"Kevin," said the woman, "that looks like the dog from the sign!" The woman told the girls about a lost dog sign she had seen on a lamppost in the parking lot. They excitedly ran to the lamppost she described, and, sure enough, it was a picture of their new friend.

"Your name is Wally," Ashley whispered, as she affectionately rubbed his ears. Tasha pulled out her phone and called the number on the sign.

"Oh, that's wonderful! We've been searching everywhere," the man exclaimed with relief. "I will be right there to get him."

As she hung up the phone, Tasha turned to Ashley. "I guess this day didn't turn out to be so boring after all," she teased.

Ashley laughed. "Who would've thought that a beach cleanup could be this exciting? After Wally is picked up, let's get back to the dunes. We have work to do!"

Bilingual Special Education for the 21st Century: A New Interface Colón, Gliset, Alsace, Tamara O., 2022-05-13 Bilingual students with disabilities have an established right to be educated in their most proficient language. However, in practice, many culturally and linguistically diverse students still do not receive the quality of education that they are promised and deserve. Multilingual learners with disabilities must be acknowledged for the assets they bring and engaged in classroom learning that is rigorous and relevant. Bilingual Special Education for the 21st Century A New Interface addresses the complex intersection of bilingual education and special education with the overlay of culturally and linguistically sustaining practices. This work provides practical solutions to current dilemmas and challenges today's educators of multilingual learners with disabilities face in the classroom. Covering topics such as dual language education identification practices and transition planning, this book is an essential resource for special education experts, faculty, and administration of both K-12 and higher education, pre-service teachers, researchers, and academicians.

From Curiosity to Deep Learning Julie Coiro, Elizabeth Dobler, Karen Pelekis, 2019 In an era where personalized learning has often come to be associated with isolated one-to-one device technology, we thirst for this personal constructivist collaborative approach to digital inquiry. From Curiosity to Deep Learning Personal Digital Inquiry in Grades K-5 reveals the powerful learning that results when you integrate purposeful technology into a classroom culture that values curiosity and deep learning. The centerpiece of this practical guide is Personal Digital Inquiry (PDI), a framework developed by Julie Coiro and implemented in classrooms by her co-authors Elizabeth Dobler and Karen Pelekis. Clear, detailed examples offer ideas for K-5 teachers and school librarians to support their teaching. Personal emphasizes the significance of the personal relationship between teachers and students and the role that students have in the learning process. Digital reflects the important role that digital texts and tools have come to play in both learning and teaching with inquiry. Inquiry lies at the core of PDI because learners grow and change with opportunities to identify problems, generate personal wonderings, and engage in collaborative dialogue, making learning relevant and lasting. From Curiosity to Deep Learning Personal Digital Inquiry in Grades K-5 shows you how to integrate inquiry with a range of digital tools and resources that will create a dynamic classroom for both you and your students.
