the likes of Roger Ailes and Roone Arledge Frothy features and other kinds of entertainment have been part and parcel of TV news from the start viewer preferences have always played a role in the evolution of programming although the disintegration of a national culture since the 1970s means that most of us no longer follow the news as a civic obligation Throughout Ponce de Leon places his history in a broader cultural context emphasizing tensions between the public service mission of TV news and the quest for profitability and broad appeal
