

An example of an autobiographical essay/personal narrative

[Written by a student in the Labour Studies program, used with permission]

My name is Carlo, and I was born in June, 1958, in Italy. Our family, made up of my mother, father, and a brother, emigrated to Noranda, Quebec, when I was five years old. I encountered my first, but not last, taste of racism when kids in the neighbourhood laughed at my poor command of English. As fast as I could I learned not only English, but French as well. I became trilingual, speaking fluent French and English, as well as Italian. In the process, I made new friends from a lot of different cultural backgrounds.

We then moved to Toronto, Ontario, where my Dad got work in a rubber factory. From my earliest days, I knew our family had to struggle for every penny. My Mom baked pizza which my brother sold by the slice, door to door. I caddied at the local golf courses and brought home all the money that I made. I hated it when other kids made fun of working people, like garbage collectors, who cleaned up trash for a living.

When I was in grade six, I was ill in hospital for two months with a kidney infection, and it changed my whole life. I seriously took up playing guitar. I began to do photography, and joined the audiovisual club. I discovered I was artistic with an interest in graphic art, although I didn't always agree with the kind of art assignments the teacher gave us. However, I had no idea what to do after high school graduation. Thinking electronics was the wave of the future, I enrolled in and graduated with a diploma from George Brown College in Instrumentation Technology. I was hired on by Ontario Hydro as an apprentice.

Life was magical for a single guy in Toronto at this time. I made quite a bit of money. I enjoyed meeting and socializing with many new friends from a variety of different cultures. During this time, I met and married my wife, Valerie, a Registered Nurses' Assistant, and soon we had two wonderful children, a daughter, Carla and a son, Nicholas. With new family responsibilities, I felt there was not enough opportunity for advancement at work. My wife and I thought of places we would like to live such as the east coast. But there were no jobs there. We finally decided to move to northern B.C. when I was offered a job with a forestry company.

Because of the children's activities, I soon became involved in the community coaching children's hockey and soccer, and being a scout leader. At work, I joined the Pulp Mill Recreation Club, eventually becoming president. There were a lot of things that needed changing. I decided I wanted our company to start a wellness program and researched to prove to them that healthy employees tremendously reduced absenteeism and health costs to the company. I wanted the company to reward those who kept themselves fit and began to lobby for this through our union.

I soon became elected as union safety captain, then later became a shop steward. I began to run for executive positions rising through the ranks from financial secretary to environmental vice president, chief shop steward, first vice president, and finally becoming president, a position I held for two years.

In my trade, I constantly must upgrade my skills, so I took advantage of many learning opportunities to do so through the company. This helped our union come into the 21st century, because I insisted we buy computers and subscribe to e-mail, connecting our members to other locals throughout the province. I also edited the union newsletter, keeping the members informed of all aspects of the local's business. I used desktop publishing to produce our newsletter before anyone in Head Office knew what it was. Using my background in art and photography, I brought our publication from a crude photocopied rag to a sophisticated communication tool. For my efforts, I won two Canadian Association of Labour Media Awards, one for the best cartoon in

How To Start Autobiographical Narrative:

Engaging in Narrative Inquiry D. Jean Clandinin, 2022-09-01 In Engaging in Narrative Inquiry Second Edition D. Jean Clandinin a pioneer in narrative research updates her classic formulation on narrative inquiry clarifying extending and refining methods. This updated edition looks at changes and developments in the field since the publication of the first edition in 2013 exploring how narrative inquiry explores human lives through a narrative lens that honors experience as a source of important knowledge and understanding. The book includes several exemplary cases with the author's critique and analysis of the work. The following are new to this edition: New exemplary cases including Menon's autobiographical narrative inquiry as the starting point for framing a research puzzle and justifying a study; Chung's account of a study that begins with living alongside participants; and a paper from Swanson's autobiographical narrative inquiry. An expanded discussion of the philosophical grounding of narrative inquiry. An expanded discussion of relational ethics in narrative inquiry that highlights links to a relational ontology. An updated account of the field of narrative inquiry that highlights future directions including the necessity of response groups and questions of responsibility and community. The increasing interest in narrative inquiry as research methodology across disciplines makes this book an essential guide and an excellent text for graduate courses in qualitative inquiry education and nursing research, sociology and all courses in autobiographical and narrative research and inquiry.

Narratives in Action Stanton Emerson, Fisher Wortham, 2001 This work tells how narrative self construction happens in part through the interactional power of narrative discourse as narrators enact characteristic types of social events with their audiences while telling their stories.

Engaging in Narrative Inquiries with Children and Youth Jean Clandinin, Vera Caine, Sean Lessard, Janice Huber, 2016-03-24 Renowned scholar and founder of the practice of narrative inquiry D. Jean Clandinin and her coauthors provide researchers with the theoretical underpinnings and processes for conducting narrative inquiry with children and youth. Exploring the unique ability of narratives to elucidate the worldview of research subjects the authors highlight the unique steps and issues of working with these special populations. The authors address key ethical issues of anonymity and confidentiality the relational issues of co-composing field and research texts with subjects and working within the familial contexts of children and youth include numerous examples from the authors' studies and others many from indigenous communities to show narrative inquiry in action should be invaluable to researchers in education family relations child development and children's health and services.

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2020-12-28 Now in its fourth edition this popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms. This new edition broadens its focus to cover important topics such as critical race theory perspectives on teaching fiction nonfiction and drama the integration of digital literacy and teacher research for ongoing learning and professional development. It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts. It also addresses the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to today's adolescents. By using authentic dilemmas and contemporary issues, the authors encourage preservice English teachers and their instructors to raise and explore inquiry based questions that center on the teaching of a variety of literary texts both classic and contemporary traditional and digital. New to the Fourth Edition Expanded attention to digital tools multimodal learning and teaching online. New examples of teaching contemporary texts. Expanded discussion and illustration of formative assessment. Revised response activities for incorporating young adult literature into the literature curriculum. Real world examples of student work to illustrate how students respond to the suggested strategies. Extended focus on infusing multicultural and diverse literature in the classroom. Each chapter is organized around specific questions that preservice teachers consistently raise as they prepare to become English language arts teachers. The authors model critical inquiry throughout the text by offering authentic case narratives that raise important considerations of both theory and practice. A companion website, a favorite of English education instructors, <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their current or future classrooms.

International Encyclopedia of Education, 2009-04-17

The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological, societal and institutional change in recent years, making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science. Unequalled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage, International Encyclopedia of Education, Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions (1985, 1994) in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader. Under development for five years, this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field. Education is a multidisciplinary and international field, drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity. The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries, capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field. A totally new work, revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles. Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia. Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study. Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning, demography and social change, globalization and adult learning to name a few. Offers two content delivery options, print and online, the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files.
