Filling the Afghan Security Gap: Women's Education as a Means for Weakening the Taliban

“The world cannot achieve a sustainable, peaceful, and prosperous future without investing in girls’ education,” wrote Malala Yousafzai, student and girls’ education activist (xvii). Households depend on women, especially when men have left the home to fight. Expanding girls’ education, thus maximizing women’s economic potential, directly contributes to a family’s prosperity (Sloan). Therefore, in a country like Afghanistan, where the militant Islamic Taliban preys on poverty for recruitment, women’s education is crucial to building peace. Since the mission of my bureau, the U.S. Agency for International Development Bureau for Democracy, Conflict, and Humanitarian Assistance (USAID DCHA), is to “end extreme poverty and promote resilient, democratic societies,” we will take charge of expanding women’s education to spur development. However, we recognize that the Taliban’s attacks on girls’ schools constrain women’s educational opportunities. Thus, our chief strategy will be to disseminate educational technologies—rather than solely build schools—so that women can flexibly adapt their educational schedules to regional conditions.

How To Write A High School Essay Paper:

Academic Writing for Geographers James A. Tyner, 2023-08-21 There are many how to books on writing for academics none of these however relate specifically to the discipline of geography In this book the author identifies the principle modes of academic writing that graduate students and early career faculty will encounter specifically focusing on those forms expected of geographers that is those modes that are reviewed by academic peers This book is readily accessible to senior undergraduate and graduate students and early career faculty who may feel intimidated by the process of writing This volume is not strictly a how to or step by step manual for writing an article or book rather through the use of real concrete examples from published and unpublished works the author demystifies the process of different types of scholarly pieces geographers have to write with the specific needs and challenges of the discipline in mind Although chapters are thematic based e g stand alone chapters on book reviews articles and books the manuscript is structured around the concept of story telling for it is the author's contention that all writing whether a scientific study or more humanist essay is a form of story telling

Morality in Discourse Michael Haugh, Rosina Márquez-Reiter, 2025-01-12 Morality is pervasive touching all aspects of social life The contributors to this volume provide an introduction to research on how morality is socially constructed in and through discourse and the implications of this for the empirical analysis and theorization of morality The volume addresses both how morality gets done through everyday practices as well as the practical concerns that discussions of morality inevitably entail It does so by delving into how morality is socially constructed in an array of communicative environments through the lens of a range of different discourse analytic traditions Drawing on the conceptual tools of moral stance positioning responsiveness and authority the chapters address the ways in which morality is enacted interactionally negotiated contested and policed What emerges from these discussions and analyses is an understanding of morality from a discursive perspective that encompasses both morality as action in which moral stances become the articulated object of action and moral framing in which the situated context itself is morally charged for evaluation
