

Example of a journal

Composition II was a great experience for me. I have learned many things that I did not have any idea about it. I remember that I used to write just because I had to do it. I was not aware of the mistakes that I made. Now, everything is completely different because I learned the right way to elaborate a paragraph and an essay. I know that at the beginning of the semester, told you that I did not like to write at all. As I went through this subject, I changed my mind because learned to enjoy while writing.

I realized that I can express my ideas, feelings and thoughts through writing. Writing is as living in another world, in my world. Let me tell you that I have learned many things from you not only in English Composition but also in the English levels. I have had the opportunity to take four subjects with you. And I have learned that you are such a great teacher that the most difficult task with you becomes easy. I really want to thank you for being such a comprehensive teacher. You have a nice personality.

I think you are the kind of person who was born to teach because you have been patient while we were learning how to write. I look up to you for having that virtue of patience. You are the kind of person that inspires and encourages people to continue when the path seems difficult. I also thankful for having taken the time to clarify our doubts even when you were busy. Your pieces of advice have been very useful for me because as I followed them, I shaped my writing style. I feel satisfied because of the progress I have made in writing.

There is a big difference between how I used to write and the way I write after taking Composition with you. You have had a big influence in the way I write now. I want to thank you for everything you have taught me. You are an excellent teacher. Let me tell you that I have a special affection for you. You are a very nice person. Definitely, the world needs more teachers like you. Thank you for making a difference in your students' lives. "It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge."

Using Journals With Reluctant Writers Scott Abrams, 2000-05-11 I loved the book and the soulful responses it generated from my reluctant writers. Dee Conklin, Ph.D., Teacher, Reno Sparks Indian Colony, Reno, NV. This journal program is authentic and gets students to write. Because the journal topics reflect current issues, my students respond positively. And I get great insight into their lives. Carol Popowich, Resource Teacher, Marshall Alternative High School, Bend, OR. This is a book that is sorely needed. I'm impressed with the mature way the topics are presented to the students. Rob Owens, Teacher, Washburn Rural High School, Topeka, KS. This is one of the best books I have seen on topics for writing. All students could benefit from this, not just the reluctant writer. Carol Miller, Intervention Specialist, Mineral Ridge High School, Mineral Ridge, OH. Inspire your students to communicate and reflect through writing. Using Journals With Reluctant Writers is an effective language arts tool for teachers, especially those who teach at-risk, alternative, and special education students. Designed to inspire even the most reluctant writers, journal topics are followed by non-revealing, non-threatening exercises to introduce writing as a means of expression and to allow students to test teacher reactions. Positive teacher responses then encourage students to move on to material that require more personal reflection and further elaboration. Whether using the journals for daily practice or weekly assignments, teachers can effectively lead students through critical thinking, self-discovery, and ultimately more relevant and proficient writing. Each chapter begins with a topical thought provoking quote and concludes with suggested videos and related readings that can be used for more comprehensive assignments. Using Journals With Reluctant Writers also assists teachers and students in creating a complete language arts portfolio. Highlights of this teacher's guide include: Topical chapter opening quotes that instill deeper self reflection, Multiple questions for each topic to encourage more in-depth responses, Suggested readings for more comprehensive assignments, Suggested videos for each journal topic, Students relate well to videos, Flexible format for daily entries or weekly assignments, 45 journal topics for weekly assignments throughout the academic year. An essential resource for any teacher who wants to motivate students to
