Supporting Self-Directed Learning in Science and Technology Beyond the School Years Léonie J. Rennie,Susan M. Stocklmayer,John K. Gilbert,2018-12-21

While much has been written about science education from pre K through to postgraduate study interaction with science and technology does not stop when schooling ends Moving beyond scholarship on conventional education this book extends the research and provides an original in depth look at adult and lifelong learning in science and technology By identifying the knowledge and skills that individuals need to engage in self directed learning the book highlights how educators can best support adult learners beyond the years of formal schooling Through case studies and empirical analysis the authors offer a research based exploration of adults self directed learning and provide tools to support adults learning experiences in a wide range of environments while being inclusive of all educational backgrounds

Including the Other: Acknowledging Difference in Education, Language and History Milton A. George,Sergio Saleem Scatolini,Solomon Arulraj David,2019-06-15 This collection of articles zooms in on different aspects of the presence and absence of the other in education language and history A comparative study of elite English-medium schools, public schools, and Islamic madaris in contemporary Pakistan Akhtar Hassan Malik,2015-04-12 This ethnographic study examines the role of differing school knowledge in reproducing various social classes in the society It was observed that an unequal availability of capital resources agents class habitus and the type of their cultural currency act as selection mechanisms that clearly favour some social groups over others The ruling classes ensure the transfer of their power and privilege to their children by providing them with quality education in elite schools The disadvantaged classes are excluded from these unique institutions by both social and economic sanctions They have no other option than to educate their children either in public schools or Islamic madaris As a result inequitable educational opportunities consolidate the existing social class hierarchy
